The Sun's management has no desire, whatever, to force this newspaper upon anyone to whom it is being mailed at the present time. If those who are receiving it in place of the now defunct Eastern Utah Advocate want The Sun discontinued it is a very easy matter to do so. Just notify the postmaster. The Sun office by letter, postal card or telephone or any employe personally.

master. The Sun office by letter, postal card or telephone or any employe personally.

When The Sum was established it was a foregone conclusion that the Eastern Utah Advocate was soon to be a thing of the past. Feeling that persons who had paid their money for the Advocate are entitled to a newspaper, The Sun in many instances is being sent them instead of the Advocate for the time they have paid in advance for the Advocate.

In the litigation in connection with recovering the printing plant of the Advocate, the manager of The Sun was by Judge Christenson of the district court awarded the subscription books and mailing lists of the Advocate. The manager of The Sun feels it obligatory, under these conditions, to see that former subscribers to the Advocate are taken care of.

Probably seven-tentha of the subscribers of the now defunct Advocate are friends and acquaintances of the editor and manager of The Sun. The Sun anticipates that the greater portion of these will remain loyal to it.

THE SUN'S ADVICE IS TO PAY NO MONEY ON SUB-SCRIPTION ACCOUNT TO THE EASTERN UTAH ADVOCATE OR THE NEWS-ADVOCATE.
